Tastes grow more luxurious as the world grows older. Here is the height of Underwear luxury, lavish in trimmings, refined to a degree, delights to eye, touch and artistic sense.

We furnished the models to the bast couturiers of France. Our ideals, our experience and knowledge of American figures are embodied. We insist upon three things-

-That the fabrics must be the freshest and finest. 2-That the garments must be of fullest proportions. 3-That the fit be of unimpeachable correctness.

Upon this basis the workers proceeded, adding their own inimitable grace and skill in trimmings. Unhurried, in their least busy season, when aides were many and wages light, these French experts produced these masterpieces at smallest cost, giving us and you French charms and choiceness for, relatively, the cost of good American garments.
